

1 It would be possible, of course, for Delegate
2 Kiefer to -- just a second, your amendment is an entire
3 substitution for the section. The Chair is in error.

4 The amendment would be in order. It would
5 be necessary to rephrase somewhat the preliminary language.
6 This could be done.

7 Delegate Scanlan.

8 DELEGATE SCANLAN: I am cautioned myself not
9 to speak twice even on my own motions, but I do feel I
10 would like briefly to make two comments.

11 Chairman Kiefer stoutly proclaims that the com-
12 mittee went into this at great length and considerable
13 data was assembled. I direct the attention of the assembly
14 to the two platitudinous paragraphs found on page 3
15 which purports to explain their conclusion and their 16 recommendation.

17 There is not a fact, there is not a statistic,
18 there is not a piece of information upon which any intelli-
19 gent delegate could base a decision. But even there
20 they conclude where I come out, it is the role of the 21 legislature to determine to what extent and in what manner
